Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 10 of the Life-study of Matthew, entitled The King's Anointing (3). This life-study covers Matt. 3:13-17, which addresses the baptism of the King by John the Baptist.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

The Lord's baptism to fulfill God's righteousness and to be put into death and resurrection brought Him three things: the open heaven, the descending of the Spirit of God, and the speaking of the Father. It should be the same today with us...The way we can have an open heaven, the descending Spirit, and the speaking of the Father is to be terminated. Many of us can testify that whenever we have been terminated, the heavens have been opened. On the contrary, whenever we were welcomed and honored, the heavens were closed. Whenever we are terminated in the church life, the heavens are opened. Moreover, every termination brings down the Holy Spirit and opens the mouth of our heavenly Father.

(Witness Lee, Life-study of Matthews, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 10).

Key Verses for pray-reading: Matt. 3:16-17

Questions:

1. What is the significance of the phrase "from Galilee to the Jordan"? How does this relate to our experience today?
2. What is a definition of righteousness? How can man become righteous in God's eyes?
3. What are the three things that the Lord's baptism brought Him? How do they relate to us in our experience?
