Matt. 6:1-18

Life-Study of Matthew – Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 21 of the Life-study of Matthew, entitled The Decree of the Kingdom's Constitution (9). This life-study covers Matt. 6:1-18, which is the fourth section of the King's decree on the mountain, concerning the righteous deeds of the kingdom people.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

The universe indicates that God is hidden, that God is secret. Although He has done a great many things, people are not aware that He has done them. We may have seen the things done by God, but none of us has ever seen Him, for He is always hidden, always secret. God's life is of such a secret and hidden nature. If we love others by our own life, this life will seek to make a display of itself before men. But if we love others by the love of God, this love will always remain hidden. Our human life loves to make a display, a public show, but God's life is always hidden... Although God has so much within Him, only a little is manifested. If we live by this divine life, we may pray much, but others will not know how much we have prayed. We may give a great deal to help others, but no one will know how much we give. We may fast often, but this also will not be known by others. We may have a great deal within us, but very little will be manifested. This is the nature of the kingdom people in the doing of their righteous deeds. (Witness Lee, Life-study of Matthews, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 21).

Key Verses for pray-reading: Matt 6:1, 4, 9-13

Questions:

1. In these eighteen verses (Matt. 6:1-18), what are the three illustrations the Lord uses to reveal how we are filled with the self and the flesh?
2. What is the basic principle concerning righteous deeds?
3. How do our secret experiences of the Lord kill our self and our flesh?
